[Partially Lost] Sugar Rush Arcade Game

Video Games

During the 2010s, specifically from 2012 - 2018, Disney released a Sugar Rush game. This game was based on the fictional arcade game "Sugar Rush" from the Movie Wreck-It Ralph. I remember seeing this game after the movie came out. I remember playing it at an Arcade, probably in a Peter Piper Pizza or a Chuck E Cheese. It was like any other racing game except it was themed to Sugar Rush. There have been videos and Screenshots of this game online. However, I cannot find the actual playable game anywhere. I've been looking for around a year and still haven't found anything. There is some short gameplay footage on YouTube and TikTok. Disney has stated that the game existed, but they took the game down in sometime of 2018. Other than that, not much is known about the actual game. People in the comments of the Tiktok Gameplay, stated that they remembered playing this game too and they've been looking for it for years. I've got the link to the gameplay footage below. Thank you, and please if you have a copy of this game let me know.

So you start the game and choose your character. I feel like somewhere after that, there's a mini game similar to the one in the film where you make your cart (I may be getting that confused with the ios game of the same name though) and then you play the track. The track itself was based on the film and it had 3D controls that felt a tiny bit awkward lol! (I can't remember a lot, I'm sorry 😭 I wish I'd played it a little more.)

Other than that, I have a couple archive.org links to send over just in case anyone with more knowledge can somehow get them working again. All the best and I hope you manage to find it! I hope to play them one last time again some day as well. I left hero's duty off on the last level and never completed it 😳

Hiya, so quick update: I managed to find a working copy! Here's a video of some gameplay. I remembered the code from back then too lol!

(Also sorry that the gameplay is awful, I was trying to figure out controls and it's the middle of the night lmao)

Okay, so here's the method of playing it. First you need to download a program called flashpoint. It takes a tiny while to download but it's worth it! Basically what flashpoint does is trick the game into thinking it's running on flash.

Once downloaded, the program will open and you should see an option at the top to search, literally all you need to do is type "Sugar Rush" and you'll see a file called sugar rush speedway. Click that and it'll load the game into a browser and you'll be good to go!

All the best and happy gaming! :D

This game isn't lost 100% I played it a lot on the Disney website when it came out. Yes they took it down, but if you find a way to illegally download it ur good 👍🏾 I'll help you out and find it brother. Cause this happened to me multiple times with old games. For example the dead space mobile games, the old pixel suite life of Zach and Cody wizard game, fusion fall, etc. just reach out to me and I'ma do my best to help you get this game.
